

ANNOUNCEMENT:CANTOR FITZGERALD EUROPE STRENGTHENS
EQUITY TRADING CAPABILITIES*London – Monday, 21st September 2020

Cantor Fitzgerald Europe (CFE) has strengthened its core Equity and Investment Trust trading business by recruiting several senior professionals. Joining the firm are Chris Cathey (formerly of Goldman Sachs and BAML), Mark Slatford (Credit Suisse), Giles Warner (BAML), Robert Tappin (Goldman Sachs and Deutsche Bank), Jonathan Way (Espirito - Haitong Securities & Oriel Securities) and Simon Mason (Credit Suisse and Deutsche Bank).

These hires reinforce our trading execution service in FTSE, AIM, and STOXX Europe 600 shares, investment trusts, and global depository receipts. They will report to Karim Moussalem, Head of Cash Equities.

“We welcome these talented individuals to Cantor, where they will enhance our liquidity solutions across market segments. Our new hires have an excellent record of delivering results for clients. This strengthening of our team highlights Cantor’s long-term commitment to growing its Equity Trading in FTSE and AIM shares, European blue-chips, investment trusts, and global depository receipts“, said Talat Khan, European Head of Equities.

These changes are part of Cantor’s continuing strategic investment in Europe. The firm is expanding in Equities, Prime Services, Private Share Trading, and Investment Banking. It has freed up resources after exiting UK Corporate Finance, Sales and Research earlier in the year.

About Cantor Fitzgerald Europe

CFE has a global multi-asset platform with a focus on the quality middle market. It offers sales, trading, research and fully integrated prime brokerage. The firm provides capital raising and advisory to both fast-growing and mature companies through its Investment Banking team, which specializes in healthcare, power, energy and infrastructure. CFE is a global financial services firm and a committed participant in the UK and European markets.